Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies

BULLETIN No. 33

LAST CALL FOR THE 1933 OFFICIAL TRAIL RIDE

THESE hot days are making many people think of the snow capped peaks and cool glaciers of the Canadian Rockies. The ideal way in which to enjoy this marvellous country is to go on a trail ride, camping under the stars with good companions. So make up your mind before it is too late to join us at Lake Louise on July 28th, and bring your friends. The route selected has been called the best yet, much of it above timber line and traversing the most spectacular scenery in North America along a trail which has been gone over by a crew of trail makers sent by the Parks Branch of the Canadian Government. The guides, horses and catering will be supplied for the fourth year in succession by Pat Brewster, and we all know how satisfactory he has proved to be. The rate of $40 just covers expenses and is considerably less than would be required for a small party. We had a wonderful turn out last summer in spite of the depression and now that times are getting better, we should have another record trail ride. Those who have not yet sent in their reservations should write at once to L. S. Crosby, Western Secretary, Trail Riders, Banff, Alberta, Canada.
